The Inclusive Nature and Judgment of Sin
Romans 2:12-16

BIG IDEA: God's judgment on sin is all-inclusive and unavoidable.

This morning we are going to examine four truths about the inclusive nature and judgment of sin:

I. Every sinner is fully _____ in God's righteous and impartial judgment. (2:12)

II. Every sinner who hears God's Word and yet does not _____ His Word remains fully unrighteous before God. (2:13)

- 2:3
- James 1:21-15

III. Every sinner is fully _____ by God's Holy Law and Word. (2:14-16a)

IV. Every sinner who does not believe in the _____ of Jesus Christ (_____ it by faith) will have their unrighteousness openly _____ and _____ judged by God. (2:16b)

OBSERVATIONS

1. All people, regardless of their ethnicity or cultural background, are guilty of eternal condemnation because of their sin against God.

2. Every sinner who believes in the Gospel of God by faith will be saved from God's eternal wrath and judgment through Christ's death and resurrection.

APPLICATION

1. Do not resist God's truth about your sin.

2. Instead, repent of your sin by turning to Jesus Christ in faith and believing His Gospel.

3. Every sinner who receives God's righteous gift of eternal salvation by faith will be eternally forgiven from their sin and eternally spared from God's righteous wrath and judgment.
