

Isaiah 40:12-31The God Who Renews Our Strength

BIG IDEA: Because God glory is incomparable,
He alone is worthy of our worship.

1. God is incomparable in His _____ glory. (40:12-20)

- Nothing can rival the vastness of God's _____.
(vs. 12-13a)
- Nothing can rival the vastness of God's _____.
(vs. 13b-14)
- No nation can rival the of vastness of God's _____ and _____. (vs. 15-17)
- No idol can rival the glory of God's _____.
(vs. 18-20)

2. God is incomparable in His _____ glory. (40:21-26)

- *God is gloriously sovereign because He is the
_____.* (vs. 21-22a)
- *God is gloriously sovereign over every _____
_____.* (vs. 22b-24)
- *God is gloriously sovereign because of His infinite
_____.* (vs. 25-26)

3. God is incomparable in His _____ glory.
(40:27-31)

- No trial that we face will ever be _____ from God. (vs. 27)
- No trial that we face will ever change God's holy _____. (vs. 28)
- God graciously gives _____ to those who trust and obey Him. (vs. 29-31)

Observations

- Waiting on God means to trust and obey Him in times of weakness and exhaustion (physical, spiritual, emotional).
- Waiting on God requires humble submission to His sovereign plan and timing.
- Waiting on God requires a biblically correct view of God.
- Waiting on God is a regular aspect of Christian worship.

Application

- Do not become enamored with the idols of the world—knowing and worshiping the true God is far better!
- Lift your eyes and see the glory of God in His creation and in His Church.
- No matter what may come through the “front door” of your life, keep waiting on God by trusting and obeying His Word. His way is always best!