

A Christian Response to God’s Providential Gift of Salvation
Romans 8:31-34 (pgs. #944-945 in pew Bible)

Structure of Romans 8:31-39

Question about a Christian Response to 8:28-30 (8:31a)

➤ Answer through 5 Rhetorical Statements (8:31b-35a)

- Rhetorical Statement #1 (8:31b)
- Rhetorical Statement #2 (8:32)
- Rhetorical Statement #3 (8:33)
- Rhetorical Statement #4 (8:34)

Rhetorical Statement #5 (8:35a)

- Question and Quote from Psalm 44:22 (8:35b-36)
 - Answer and Supporting Statement (8:37-39)

Big Idea: Christian salvation is eternally secure in God.

1. Since God is always _____ good on behalf of our salvation, no enemy of God can _____ against Christians and _____ prevail. (8:31b)

2. Since God powerfully _____ up His Son as a free _____ on behalf of our salvation, God will never fail to give Christians what is _____ and for their ultimate good. (8:32)

3. Since God has _____ His _____ children through the blood of Jesus Christ, no enemy of God can eternally _____ Christians of any sin. (8:33)

4. Since Christ Jesus _____, was _____ from the dead, is _____ at God's right hand, and is powerfully _____ for us, no enemy of God can eternally _____ Christians. (8:34)

APPLICATION

- 1. If you are a Christian, God is "for you" in every providential blessing and circumstance that He brings through the front door of your life.
- 2. If you are a Christian, God will never allow anything to enter your life that could eternally harm you or His gift of salvation.
- 3. If you are a Christian, you have the daily responsibility to stay focused on the glory of God and to hold fast to the eternal promises of His Word.