

The Christian's Confidence
in Life and Death
Romans 8:18-39

The confidence of Christian hope shines the brightest
when Christians patiently endure
suffering. (Romans 8:18-25)

God providentially works
all things together for good for every Christian.
(Romans 8:26-30)

Every Christian's salvation
is eternally secure in God.
(Romans 8:31-34)

God's love for each Christian
will never end or diminish.
(Romans 8:35-39)

BIG IDEA: Christians are “more than conquerors” in life and death because nothing will separate them from God’s holy love.

